

LEHI LEDGER

JULY 2021

Looking Forward with Excitement

WRITTEN BY COUNCILOR CHRIS CONDIE

Round up Week is back! The parades are back! COVID restrictions are being lifted and a sense of normalcy is returning. It is exciting and feels great. As we enjoy our summer activities and being with family and friends, let's remember where we have been. It has been, what feels like, a long journey to get where we are now.

This summer is not without challenges. Utah is in a severe drought and water for Lehi's pressurized irrigation system, our lawn sprinklers, is going to struggle unless we get rain. Let's work together to conserve water, utilize our sprinklers effectively and efficiently, and we, and our lawns, will get through this summer. Remember, water only 2 days a week, with at least 48 hours in-between watering.

On another note, in June the City Council passed a budget for 2021-22. I am excited to say included in this budget is $5,000,000 that is dedicated to Family Park. This property is special to Lehi for so many reasons. I am excited to see this park continue to get designed and built out. As the city looks to build out Family Park and Mellor Rhodes Park, please take the opportunity to give your opinion and offer suggestions. These will be unbelievable assets to each city resident.

Congratulations to Miss Lehi for getting second runner-up in the Miss Utah competition. Lindsey has represented Lehi City so well and we are so proud! Way to go Lindsey!

Administration

Phase 3

At the City Council Meeting on June 9, 2021, the city council decided to implement phase 3 of the Water Shortage Management Plan effective June 15. Under these restrictions, water users may not water their yards more than two days a week with at least two days in between watering cycles.

One irrigation is equivalent to 20 minutes with pop-up spray heads and 40 minutes with impact rotor sprinklers. With the current restrictions in place, we understand that there will be spots on lawns where there may be browning. We would encourage residents to spot water in those areas rather than run a whole irrigation zone or running your system longer.

We appreciate those who have taken our current water shortage seriously and the efforts that have been made to conserve water.

Weekly Watering Guide

The Utah Division of Water Resources publishes a weekly watering guide, which determines how frequently we should water based on temperature and precipitation rates. Visit conservewater.utah.gov/guide for more information.

Planning Department

Lehi City has launched a new website, Engage Lehi, to help provide another opportunity to get involved. One way to participate is to submit public comment for Planning Commission items that interest you. Participation on this website is similar to attending a Planning Commission meeting, but allows you to do so at a convenient time and place for you. Here are some ways you can participate in the public process online:

- Read about all current public hearing projects being review at the upcoming Planning Commission meetings
- Read staff reports and view plans for the various projects
- Submit public comments for the projects that will be read by the Planning Commission
- Read other people's comments about the same projects
- Answer questions and receive answers from City Staff
- Read motions from the Planning Commission after the meeting

You can register for Engage Lehi at engagelehi.org. If you have any questions, you please call 385-201-1030.
